

LEO CLUB INSTALLATION

Leo Club Officer Installation and New Member Initiation

Leo Club Procedures

After organizing a new Leo club, the sponsoring Lions club acquires certain responsibilities. The most obvious of these is to arrange a well-organized meeting for the presentation of the Certificate of Organization. This meeting corresponds to a Charter Night meeting for a Lions club and should be a memorable meeting for all concerned. Invite local civic or school officials to the event. Perhaps the entire membership of the Lions club could attend and consider this a joint meeting or a spouses' night. The evening will vary according to local customs and conditions.

The following list is a guideline only. Clubs can delete or add items as necessary.

- Meeting called to order
- Suitable opening (may include a song)
- Salute to the flag
- Invocation
- Dinner
- Introduction of people at speaker's table
- Brief description of Leo club (given by Leo club advisor or Lions club president)
- Induction of new members, installation of Leo club officers
- Presentation of Certificate of Organization
- Presentation of gift (the Lions club may present a gift to the Leo club. The Lions
- Supply Catalog includes items such as a gong, gavel, banner, flag, etc.)
- Program or entertainment
- Adjournment

In a meeting such as this, the small, often overlooked details can add much to the final success of the function. Consider the following:

A printed program - Include the agenda as well as the names of each officer and member of the Leo club. This provides a fine souvenir.

Greeting committee - To greet members and guests as they arrive. Greeters also assure that each guest is properly seated.

Decorations - Welcome signs and/or flowers on the speaker's table.

Public address system - If the meeting is in a large room, make sure that all guests will be able to hear the speakers.

Initiation Ceremony for New Members

The Leo club president, the Leo club advisor or a specific Lions club officer performs the ceremony for the initiation of new members.

The presiding officer calls the meeting to order with these words: "We are about to begin the initiation ceremony which will welcome new members to the _____ Leo Club. This is a most important occasion for these members and for our club, and I sincerely request the attention and silence of the membership during the ceremony. Please withhold any applause or demonstrations until it is complete. I will now call the names of the new members and as I do, I request that they rise and come forward."

The presiding officer calls the names of the new members. When all the candidates are standing, the officer says:

"On behalf of the officers and members, I welcome you to the _____ Leo Club. You have been invited to become members, and we are all happy and proud of your decision to accept.

Membership in a Leo club is a privilege. You are about to enter a program that extends throughout the world. It began in 1967 as an official activity of Lions Clubs International. Leo goals include high moral standards, personal responsibility, an attitude of cheerfulness and understanding, and in addition, extending a helping hand to those in need.

Now, in your own community and with your own acquaintances, an entire series of challenges await. You are not alone in your efforts. At all times, you can count on the encouragement and cooperation of your fellow Leo club members, officers, and the Leo club advisor. They will be happy to help you achieve the high goals which you have adopted.

Once again, I express my congratulations to you for having joined this club. I now ask that you repeat after me the obligation of membership: '...(each one should state his/her name)...in the presence of the members of the Leo club...take on this solemn obligation...to abide by the constitution and bylaws of the club...to attend all meetings regularly...to support and further the interests of the club...in all its undertakings...and to contribute my fair share...towards the financial support of the club...I further declare that I will assist in maintaining...building...and strengthening the membership of the club...that I will help the club...by actively serving on committees and in other capacities ...where my efforts are needed...And finally...that I will develop in myself...those qualities...of cheerfulness, service and loyalty...which should characterize a Leo club member...at all times.' You are now members of the _____ Leo Club."

(The presiding officer now pins a lapel button on each new Leo club member and presents a membership card and membership certificate.) After induction:

- Assign the new member to serve as greeter at the next few club meetings. This will give the newcomer an opportunity to meet every member.
- Integrate the new member into an existing committee.
- Invite the new member to an informal social gathering with the officers of the club.
- The sponsor should ensure that the new member receives proper orientation to the Leo Club Program and Lionism and a New Member Kit with lapel pin. The sponsor should be willing to answer all questions and should offer to accompany the new member to the first few meetings.

Whenever a Leo moves to another location, officers should encourage that member to join the local Leo club. If a Leo club does not exist, the officer should encourage the member to speak to a local Lions club about sponsoring a Leo club. The future of every Leo club depends on current Leo officers and members. When the Leos work together, recruiting and motivating new members provides club growth. Assuring the continued existence of a club is a valuable service that Leos can perform for their community.
